ISSUED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING IN TIME FOR THE MAIL

Eastern Canada Mail.

(Per Northern Pacific Railway.)

MONTREAL, June 12.—Several more attempts to pass bogus cheques came to light to-day.

TORONTO, June 12.—Writs have been issued in civil actions for libel against the Mail and the Irish Canadian, at the instance of Warden Massie of the Central Prison. It is understood that both the investigation by the Government Commission and the libel suits will be brought on immediately.

William Tuttle, who killed Alfred Tenbroeck, his employer, in a quarrel Grantham, near St. Catharines, last March, was yesterday sentenced to two years in Kingston penitentiary.

York County Council yesterday passed a resolution expressing the general feeling of the county that the Dominion Government should grant another term of office to Lieut.-Governor Robinson.

OTTAWA, June 12.—H. V. Noel, manager of the Quebec Bank here, has just received a telegram stating that seven lumbermen were drowned on the drive at Quinze rapids. These rapids are about 350 miles up the Ottawa river. No particulars have yet been received of the names of the unfortunate men, or as to how the accident occurred.

Bella Graham, a young girl residing in this city, was walking last evening in the vicinity of Theodore street along with her young man. Three men named McHugh, Brock and Gooden overtook the couple, and two of the latter seized the girl while the third attempted to assault her. The young man who was with Miss Graham gave warning to the police, and the three scoundrels were arrested. They appeared in the police court to-day, when the case was remanded. This evening the condition of Miss Graham is somewhat precarious.

An order in Council is published in to-day's Gazette declaring the Scott Act in force in the county of Wellington on the expiry of the present licenses,

PRESCOTT, June 11.—The funeral of the late W. T. Benson, M. P., took place from his late home at Cardinal to-day, the body being followed to the railway station by over five hundred people. Never in this section of the country has so much widespread sorrow been expressed. The village church was not large enough to accommodate one third of those who assembled to pay tribute to his memory.

COBOURG, June 12.—Thomas Powell was found drowned in Factory Creek Wednesday night. He has been missing for a week.

MONTREAL, June 12.—The statement of the Merchants' Bank to be presented to the shareholders at the meeting next week shows the net profits of the year, after paying of interest and charges, and deducting the appropriations for bad and doubtful debts, to be $523,799, which, added to the balance from last year, $9,501, makes a total of $533,300. This has been disposed of as follows: Dividend of 7 per cent. $400,733.69; added to rest, $125,000; carried forward to profit and loss account next year, $7,566.71.

LONDON, June 13.—Last evening B. Johnson, of the Grand Trunk railway, was working in his garden, in London East, and his daughter May was playing with some other children and watering the flowers. After the children had left the yard Mr. Johnson suddenly missed his little girl, and thinking she had gone into the house, went in to look for her. Not finding her there, however, he thought of the cistern, as she had the watering can when watering her flowers, and going there he saw her long hair floating on the water. The father got her body out and sent for Drs. Davis and Belfry, who arrived and tried for over an hour to bring the young girl back to life, but to no avail. Deceased was between seven and eight years of age.

WALTON, June 13.—This afternoon while a number of high school students were swimming in the Saugren River one of them, John Erwin, aged 21, took cramps and was drowned. He was a good swimmer.

SMITHVILLE, June 14.—Two sons of Lorenzo Heltemen were drowned here this morning while bathing.

HAMILTON, June 14.—A fire took place to day in a stable near A. Swayzey's feed store, King street east. Loss about $1,500. Fearman's pork packing establishment, on King William street, caught in two places from this fire, and the firemen had a terrible time fighting it. Fearman says his loss will be $100,000 over insurance. The property was insured in many companies. A fireman named Brewster was injured by the roof falling in with him, and a boy named Peebles was hurt at the same time, but not badly.

LONDON, June 13.—A week ago Mrs. John Beattie, of Elmhurst, while journeying in a pullman car from Hamilton to London, lost her hand bag containing diamond jewelry valued at over $2,000. She placed the bag beside her, but on reaching her destination it was missing.

MONTREAL, June 13.—The sudden death of Joseph Lecomte, the first settler in St. Evoriste de Forsyth, Beauce county is announced.

OTTAWA, June 14.—Col. Houghton, D. A. G., Winnipeg, is in the city on business connected with the government.

A CONVICTED FINANCIER.

What Ex-President Fish Says of the Collapse of the Marine Bank.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Ex-banker Fish of the firm of Grant, Ward & Co., writes to the World certain facts which, in his opinion, show that others were as guilty or as silly as he. He says: "I not only do not charge Grant with any guilty knowledge of what was going on in Ward's office, but on the contrary, I am satisfied that he did not know anything about it. His letter, however, did, at the time, lead me to suppose that he knew about the business, and that it was just satisfactory to him. No one expresses any surprise that Grant should be humbugged, and he is let out on the ground of not being a business man. The General and his sons spent a considerable portion of their time in Grant & Ward's office, while I was very seldom there, probably not more than one hour in the aggregate. Now, while Ward deceived all of the Grant family as well as many other acknowledged capable business men, is it very surprising that I also should have been deceived? Up to the day the Marine Bank failed I had no doubt whatever of the genuineness of the alleged Government contracts. Ward has admitted upon examination before a referee, and also told several parties, that I never knew anything of the fraudulent nature of the contracts As to the wrecking of the bank, does it look as though it would have been intentional or premediated, when I and my family owned one fifth part of the capital stock, and which, instead of selling at 175, which could readily have been done, my family and myself are called upon to pay an assessment of $80,000? And does it look probable that I doubted the genuineness of the contracts when I allowed my brother to invest in them, thereby losing all that he was worth, some $80,000? My son's means were also invested in them besides those of many others of my relatives and friends, and all at my suggestion. And finally, would it not have been the height of folly for me to have every doller of my property in such a shape as to be liable to seizure? Even the balance of about $20,000 in the bank on the day of its failure and every dollar that I was worth is gone, and I am obliged to depend on my children for $15 per week to pay my board here. I made an assignment of all the property I had in the world.

PROGRAMME PENCILS AT T. N. HIBBEN & CO.'S.

China.

The Chinese authorities, having laid torpedoes off some of the ports, are now in a quandary, as they cannot find them again.

The N. C. D. News hears from Foochow that Tso Tsung-Pang is on his last legs. His memory is so bad that he cannot remember one day what was told him the day before, and all the business of the camps has to be transacted by trusty subordinates. It is said that when news of the impending peace was conveyed to him the old man rose from his couch in delight. "That is well!" he said; "now I shall be able to go home and rest."

As one of the signs of the stagnation of trade, it may be mentioned, says the News, that out of some 21,000 Chinese houses in the English settlement at Shanghai and Hongkong, there are about 3,600 empty.

More blood has been shed in Corea, a body servant of the Chinese Minister having been bayoneted by a Japanese soldier in Seoul.

An imperial decree has been issued, announcing that the captains of the gunboats Yu-yuen and Cheng-ching, which were sunk at Shelpeo last December, are to be sent to the military postyards as soon as the arms and ammunition have been fished up from the submerged vessels: and that the first officer of the Cheng-ching, who is now at large, is to be strictly searched for by the various Viceroys and Governors, and decapitated immediately upon his capture.

HOW TO KEEP COOL.—Before warm weather sets in everyone should order one of Withrow & Hillock's celebrated Arctic Refrigerators (family or grocers') from WOODS, TURNER & GAMBLE, New Westminster, agents in British Columbia. j7m

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Hall's VEGETABLE SICILIAN Hair Renewer.

Hall's Hair Renewer restores gray hair to its original color; makes the scalp white and clean; cures dandruff and humors; prevents the hair from falling out, and renders it soft and brilliant. The editor of the "Ocean Foam," Cape May, writes: "We speak knowingly, when we assert that Hall's Vegetable Sicilian Hair Renewer is the best of its kind. The article is an elegant and cleanly one, without which we think no toilet complete." Thos. D. Jones, Middle Granville, N. Y., writes: "I have used about ten years, with satisfactory results." E. G. Perkins, Oberlin, Ohio, writes: "I consider Hall's Hair Renewer the best hair preserver in use. I have used it for the past twenty years, and my hair is in as vigorous and healthy a condition as when I was 30 years of age. Not a sign of gray hair to be seen anywhere.' Dwight L. Chamberlain, Oakland, California, writes: "My hair, which was nearly white, has been restored to its original color and luxuriance by the use of Hall's Hair Renewer."

The advance of time is heralded by bleached, thin, and falling hair. By the use of Hall's Hair Renewer, the hair may be restored to its original color, lustre, and vitality. M. N. Johnson, Fitchburg, Mass., writes: "My hair was weak, thin, and full of dandruff. Hall's Hair Renewer has removed the dandruff, and caused a vigorous growth of new hair." Abel H. Smith, Portsmouth, Va., writes: "My hair had nearly all fallen out, and that which was left was dry and dead. I used one bottle of Hall's Hair and now rejoice in the possession of hair as abundant as ever." E. J. Adams, St. Paul, Minn., writes: "A diseased scalp caused my hair to fall out, and, after using a number of preparations without avail, I finally tried Hall's Hair Renewer, which caused a vigorous new growth. I am still using it, and could ask for no better results." Mrs. R. H. Corning, Battle Creek, Mich., writes: "By the use of Hall's Hair Renewer, my head, which was quite bald, has been covered with a fine growth of young hair."

THE CANADIAN FISHERIES.

On the 30th of the present month the fishery clause of the Washington treaty will expire and if the United States government should fail to make an arrangement with the Dominion government their fishermen must retire from Canadian waters. Already the premonitory muttering is heard from Halifax, where the board of trade has resolved that "Americans must not be afforded means to take bread from the mouths of our people." In a few weeks, then, the Americans will have no right or place in Canadian waters. Only about the southern and western parts of Newfoundland, along the Labrador coast and in some inconsiderable waters can American fishermen ply their avocation. Elsewhere they may not even land, except for wood and water, may not enter a port save for shelter under stress of dangerous weather. That is the plain provision of such international law as will then be in force, and Canada will have both the will and the right to insist upon it. Now, it is certain that these old agreements will not be observed by American fisherman. After having been accustomed to the freedom of Canadian waters for years, it is not likely, as was in the discussion of the Halifax resolution, that they will stop while in pursuit of fish to learn accurately in just what waters they are, or give over a promised haul because they may have gone a mile or so beyond the imaginary line that separates the forbidden from the permitted. Undoubtedly they will become aggressors before the new order of things has been in force a month, and just as undoubtedly their aggression will be resisted by Canada, with diplomacy and with force if necessary. The motion in Nova Scotia to apply to the admiralty for war ships to protect Canadian interests is no vain show, but notice of an intention on the part of the Dominion provinces to exact the letter of their rights with respect to privileges which, however absurdly they may be overvalued, are still the unquestioned right of Canada. It seems strange that no move has been made to change so dangerous a condition of affairs. The St. Paul Pioneer Press says that the whole fishery interests of Canada and New England is not worth the disturbance of international relations which may not impossibly grow out of the question. If American fishing vessels may not even enter Canadian ports for the purpose of getting bait or procuring ice, we may be sure that they will disregard the law in those respects, as it has already been made plain that they will set it aside in others. It would be worse than ridiculous, it would be criminal, if trouble between two nations should grow out of so trivial a cause. Yet that appears to be the assured result unless there shall be some speedy compromise, toward which not even a preliminary motion has yet been made. Undoubtedly an arrangement will be made and it is not too early to impress upon the local and Dominion governments that in the arrangement the interests of this province must not be disregarded. British Columbia was excluded from the benefits of the fishery clauses of the Washington treaty by an oversight; should she be again excluded her people will know where to lay the blame.

THE "FAMILY HOTEL."

Joey Bagstock was accustomed to describe himself as "sly, de-v-ilish sly;" but it is doubtful if Joey, with all his finesse, would have been a match for the cunningness of the Times of this city. A few days ago the Times attacked The Colonist for having admitted letters to its columns in condemnation of public gambling, which is notoriously carried on here under the eyes of the police. We naturally retorted that the Times (by its silence) cloaked gambling, and that it advertised a notorious brothel as a "family hotel." To this the local Joe Bagstock "slyly" retorted last evening:

"The Times neither cloaks gambling dens, nor does it advertise brothels as first-class 'family hotels.' We brand the statement as a deliberate falsehood, and uttered by The Colonist, as a slander on our hotel-keepers."

Now, The Colonist did not say that the Times advertised brothels as first-class "family hotels" We said that the Times advertises one of the most notorious brothels as a first-class "family hotel." How an attack on one hotel-keeper can be construed into an attack on all hotel-keepers is left for the ingenuity of the Times to explain. What we wish now to deal with is the statement of our esteemed contemporary that it does not advertise a brothel as a first-class "family hotel." On Thursday last, the 18th inst., the Times advertised a notorious suburban brothel as a "pleasant and healthful summer resort FOR FAMILIES." Last evening the same establishment is advertised as a "pleasant and healthful summer resort," the words "for families" having been omitted to enable the Times to say last evening that it does not advertise an improper house as a "family hotel." Our contemporary has turned a sharp curve; but he ought to have turned it six months before, and refused to advertise the house at all.

THE DOMINION'S BORROWING POWERS.

In the house on the 13th inst Mr. Bowell proposed a resolution in favor of authorizing the borrowing of $30,000,000. He gave a table of how the amounts were to be spent, which, with the explanations given in answer to Sir Richard Cartwright, may be put as follows: $10,776,000 on C. P. R. account, which includes the $5,000,000 loan to the Canadian Pacific; 5,000,000 to be given as a new loan and the balance on the subsidy and loan of last session; $10,579,663 public works to be paid out of capital; $8,775,805 miscellaneous railway subsidies; $2,250,000 subsidy to the Montreal, St. John and Halifax short line; $4,000,000 cost of the rebellion, including sums to be paid as claims for damages. Total, $36,381,464. He explained that the government already had power to borrow $4,895,000 leaving $31,486,466 to be raised. The sums he had given as the items necessary to be provided for covered the floating indebtedness, the money having been spent on these items, and a long loan had to be raised to make the amounts good. This statement shows that the borrowing powers of the country are not as yet overtaxed and that the recuperative resources of the revenue are such as to inspire with confidence English and other investors.

THE Weekly Colonist, now enlarged to 64 columns; reduced to $2 50 per year. Send for sample copy. 2t

MR. HETT VIRTUALLY REPUDIATES HIS PAPER.

The little Times, declining to be set right on the residence question, quotes legal authority that is dead against its contention, and twists and distorts it to suit its own views. The editor, with a simplicity that does him credit, informs the public that Mr. Hett, one of the principal owners of the paper, did not write any of the articles that have appeared in its columns on this subject. The disclaimer was unnecessary. After Mr. Hett's card, published on Sunday, no one would venture to accuse him of so limited a knowledge of the law. How true it is that "fools rush in where angels fear to tread." The foolish Times rushed into a controversy of the merits of which it knew nothing; while the legal mind of the angelic Hett caused him to stand aloof. Mr. Hett declines to endorse the stupidity of his newspaper, and there is nothing more to be said.

The Pro-Chinese Organ.

TO THE EDITOR.—Your disesteemed contemporary, the Standard, since the introduction into its composing room of exiled "rats" from the Sound, is fast revealing its true colours. In its issue of this morning its sends out to its 193 subscribers an assumed report of the amalgamated meeting of the various labour unions of Victoria, held in Harmony hall on Saturday evening, in which the participants were dubbed "tom-cats."

From whence does the Standard seek its patronage, when a convention of the executive committees of the various labour organizations was but "a meeting of tom-cats?" Those "tom-eats" represented alike the producers and consumers of this city, and among the speakers was a gentleman holding a seat in the city council through their suffrage.

In another part of the same issue the Standard informs a querist that as no special seat was arranged for its reporter, it therefore gave no report of the anti-Chinese meeting of the 15th. All the other dailies of Victoria, with no special provisions for the comfort of their reporters, managed to give quite lengthy reports of the proceedings. Since white workingmen are "tom cats" and anti-Chinese meetings are held in disfavor, the Standard thus openly avows itself a pro-Chinese organ.

HIBBS.

The Crime for which He is Wanted.

About a year ago Isaac N. Hibbs (who is now confined in the Victoria gaol) managed to raise himself above the dead level of obscurity by reporting to the authorities the loss of $400, which he alleged he had forwarded from his office to Dayton. He charged that the pouch which contained the money had been rifled in transit, and he requested credits for the loss. The Washington authorities notified Inspector Seybolt of Hibbs's claim and Inspector Murphy was detailed to investigate the circumstances. Murphy promptly arrived at the conclusion that if the money had ever been placed in the pouch Hibbs knew who extracted it. The Inspector was so strongly of opinion that Hibbs himself had appropriated the money that credit for the alleged loss was refused Hibbs, and on the strength of Murphy's report, the removal of the tricky postmaster was ordered. It is estimated that Hibbs has embezzled nearly $20,000 by the issuance of bogus money orders. His plan of operations was carefully arranged, and proved more successful than would have been possible had he been nearer Washington. Much of the money which he obtained by forged money orders he ordered to be sent to the postmaster at Pierce City, Idaho, knowing that the letters containing the currency and drafts would pass through his own office, and thus surely fall into his hands. After completing his swindling operations, Hibbs left Lewiston and crossed to British Columbia. His wife and child had gone a week before, and were stopping at McMinnville, Oregon. As soon as Hibbs started for British Columbia to pick up such money en route as he had ordered to be sent forward to him, Mrs. Hibbs left by the Canadian Pacific railroad to join him at Farwell, which was to be his ultimate destination. Hibbs, traveling under the alias of J. G. Wilson, reached Victoria safely, though several of his laid plans miscarried, and a considerable sum of money that he should have gathered in his flight reverted to his swindled government. From Victoria the fugitive postmaster proceeded to Yale, where, becoming alarmed by the telegraphic dispatches from Washington relative to his escapade, he became more cautious in his movements and covered his tracks so completely that for some time the pursuing officers were at fault, but finally scooped him at Harrison river.

"The Shadows."

Long before the curtain rose upon "The Shadows of a Great City" last evening the entrance to Philharmonic hall was thronged with people endeavoring to procure seats, and at about 8:15 o'clock many were turned away. Too much praise cannot be bestowed on this grand play, and as our readers have doubtless read the synopsis given in the San Francisco papers, we will not attempt to describe it. The acting throughout was highly commendable, the parts being played in a manner that drew from the audience frequent rounds of applause. Lewis Morrison, as Tom Cooper, deserves the highest praise for the manner in which he presented his character, and Mr. E. J. Holden, as George Benson, played the part of a villain to perfection. George Osbourne, as Abe Nathans, gave a highly realistic piece of acting as a Jewish pawnbroker. L. R. Stockwell, as Jim Farrier, a sneak thief, created much amusement in that role by his quaint sayings. Miss Adams' impersonation of Mrs. Standish received tremendous applause by her artistic acting. Miss Ada Deaves, as Biddy Ronan, proved the life of the play, her "take off" of a good-hearted Irish woman being the best ever seen here. All the other characters were well sustained, and when the curtain fell upon the last act the cheers were deafening. Mr. G. K. Beede has shown himself to be a competent manager, for since the Sound route came into his hands there have been none but first-class performances at the hall. The company go to Port Townsend to-day.

YESTERDAY'S DISPATCHES.

AFGHANISTAN.

LONDON, June 22.—A dispatch from Teheran states that letters received there from Herat show that the Russians have established a good understanding with Jamshidi and Hezarath, who dwell in the northern mountainous districts of Afghanistan. These letters further say that the tribes mentioned are willing to submit to Russian rule.

ENGLAND.

LONDON, June 22.—Dispatches from Staffordshire say an order has been issued to reduce the wages of nail makers from 12 to 20 per cent. A strike is threatened against the proposed reduction. Should a strike occur it would involve fully 16,000 persons.

LONDON, June 22.—Lord Ponsonby, the Queen's private secretary, called upon the Marquis of Salisbury at noon to day. It is supposed that he was the bearer of another message from the Queen. During the conference of the conservative leaders which followed this visit the secretary called again, this time in the royal carriage, and secured a talk with Salisbury—the endeavors of Her Majesty being, it is understood, to bring about an understanding between the liberal and conservative leaders, that the former may continue in office or the latter take office and carry on the government.

LONDON, June 22—4:30 p. m.—The difficulty concerning the formation of a new ministry has been fully settled, and the Marquis of Salisbury assumes the office of premier at once.

SPAIN.

MADRID, June 22.—King Alfonso, having determined to visit the cholera infected districts, although the ministry threatened to resign, immense crowds gathered on the streets on Saturday and made a demonstration in favor of the king and queen as against the ministry and the municipal authorities. The crowd becoming riotous, the civil guard was called out and fired on the mob, who thereupon stoned the soldiers. Disorder continued throughout the night with slight abatement, but the crowd was finally dispersed. To day it is reported that two workmen were shot dead and several were wounded. Many of the rioters were arrested, and some of them were found to have revolutionary proclamations in their possession. The king, after consulting with his ministry, decided to abandon the project of his tour, and the ministry was reinstated.

INDIA.

SIMLA, June 22.—As a result of the recent earthquake in the Cashmere valley 3081 persons lost their lives, 70,000 houses were laid in ruins and 33,000 animals perished. An officer has been sent to survey the scene of the shocks.

FRANCE.

PARIS, June 22.—A dispatch to Le Temps from Hanoi says that Viceroy Runnon recently captured Lapvinh Phucco, commander of the Black Flags, and that another Chinaman had strangled Phucco.

M. Vernon, conservative, has been elected senator for Reunes by a vote of 577 against 534 for the republican candidate.

DEMARARA.

DEMARARA, June 4.—The rainy season has begun. The sugar crop is expected to be below 1000 tons.

CANADA.

OTTAWA, June 22.—The resolutions proposed by the government granting aid to the Canadian Pacific railway, which passed through committee of the whole in the commons on Saturday morning, were slightly amended. Those at first submitted by the government allowed the limit of the time of the bonds to be unlimited. The term was changed to fifty years and then they carried.

WINNIPEG, Man., June 22.—Advices from Fort Pitt, N. W. T., June 20, via St. Aubenzie, N. W. T., 21, are to hand at 8 a. m. this morning. A courier, just in from Otter's camp at Stony Lake, reports Big Bear making for Hen Lake. All his braves have rejoined him. Otter will pursue him to Birch Lake. Otter has captured Yellow sky and his band who say they were not with Big Bear. They had forty head of Robert Wylde's cattle in their possession. He admitted taking them from a ranch near Battleford. Strange's forces are still at Beaver river. Captain Bedson left with the vehicles this morning to meet Otter. McLean and the other escaped prisoners are expected here to night.

EGYPT.

SUEZ, June 22.—Traffic on the Suez Canal is now fully resumed. The interruption of mails by sinking of the great dredger is not so serious as was thought; seven mail boats succeeding in passing around the obstruction.

EASTERN STATES.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., June 19.—There was no sale at Mrs. Parnell's yesterday. The claim upon which the property was recently seized by the sheriff had doubtless been settled. The house was tightly closed at the hour appointed for the sale. An ex-fenian and Edward Slavin, a prominent land leaguer, lately from Ireland, were the only persons about the house.

California.

SACRAMENTO, June 18.—A dispatch received from Courtland announces the drowning of E. H. Filter and his two sons, in the Sacramento river, about a mile above that place yesterday. The boys, while playing in the water, were carried beyond their depth. The father went to their rescue, but all three perished in sight of the wife and mother. Mr. Filter only arrived at Courtland from San Francisco with his family on Monday, intending to spend a few weeks in the vicinity. He was an old resident of San Francisco. The boys were aged respectively 12 and 14 years. There remain to mourn the sad loss a wife and three daughters.

W. F. Morrison, recently convicted of grand larceny for obtaining $3,000 on fraudulent mortuary certificates from the order of Chosen Friends, of which he was grand chancellor at the time, was to-day sentenced to ten years imprisonment at Folsom. This is the full penalty. It is stated that the case will be appealed.

A Walking Skeleton.

Mr. E. Springer, of Mechanicsburg, Pa., writes: "I was afflicted with lung fever and abscess on lungs, and reduced to a walking skeleton. Got a free bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which did me so much good that I bought a dollar bottle. After using three bottles, found myself once more a man, completely restored to health, with a hearty appetite, and a gain in flesh of 48 pounds." AN IOWA ZEPHYR.

A Cyclone Blows a Railway Train from the Track.

SIOUX CITY, Iowa, June 14.—Two men have arrived from nine miles north of Sioux City. They were passengers on the Sioux Falls train on the C., M. & St. P. Road. The train was struck by a cyclone, and every car thrown from the track and smashed to pieces. There were between 60 and 70 passengers in the cars, and most of them miraculously escaped with slight injuries. The storm was a very severe one, and the telegraph wires are prostrated in all directions except along the St. Paul road. Along the Pacific road six miles of wires are flat. So far as learned there was no serious damage to crops or buildings. No hail accompanied the storm.

Newfoundland.

HALIFAX, June 20.—Mail advices from Newfoundland give the details of a terrible storm on the coast last Sunday week, which show it to be more disastrous than at first reported. An enormous amount of shipping was destroyed and many lives were lost. At Old Perlican all the shipping stages and other waterside property were destroyed and upward of forty vessels were totally wrecked. Seventy-five vessels were driven ashore at Bona Vista, and some of them were smashed. Reports from many points give accounts of vessels, from one to a dozen in number, being smashed, and the coast is strewn with wreckage. The storm is considered the worst that has visited Newfoundland in forty years. It is rumored that three bait skiffs, each with six men on board, left Holyrood on Saturday and have not since been heard of.

A Female M. P.

LONDON, June 9.—Amongst the curiosities of the November elections will be a female candidate for Parliamentary honors. Miss Helen Taylor, the prominent advocate of women's rights, who is a step daughter of the late John Stuart Mill, the political economist, will run for the Camberwell district of London, and it is considered probable that she will poll a majority of votes. Parliamentary jurists say that there is no law to prevent a woman sitting in the House of Commons, so that this candidature piques public curiosity.

U. S. Senator Miller.

Senator John F. Miller, of California, arrived yesterday by the Queen of the Pacific, accompanied by his wife and daughter, intending to proceed to the Sound and thoroughly explore Washington Territory for pleasure and with a view of informing himself in reference to that territory's claim for admission as a state. This accomplished he will return and proceed on the S. S. Ancon on her next trip to Alaska and inform himself thoroughly of the needs and possibilities of that territory. Senator Miller was a major-general of the volunteers during the American war, having been promoted for distinguished bravery at the battle of Nashville. One eye was lost in the war, being struck by a minie ball. He declined position in the general army and accepted the collectorship of the port of San Francisco for four years and is now serving a second term as U. S. senator. He was the original promoter of the Alaska Commercial Co., and is still one of its chief stockholders.

Marine.

Steamship Queen of the Pacific, with a large passenger list and 921 tons of freight, arrived from San Francisco yesterday morning, and sailed for Puget Sound in the afternoon.

Bark W. H. Besse, Capt. Gibb, from Hongkong, arrived in the Royal roads yesterday morning.

Ship Martha, Capt. McPherson, arrived in Royal roads yesterday, 42 days from Hongkong.

Bark Alden Besse, Capt. O'Brien, arrived yesterday in Royal roads, 54 days from Hongkong.

THOROUGHBRED.—The farmers of the Seattle district being alive to the necessity of improving their stock are importing thoroughbreds. The Queen of the Pacific yesterday had on board a fine two-year-old, prize shorthorn bull, for that port.

ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon a workman employed on the building at the northeast corner of Humboldt and Government streets, fell off the scaffold and was conveyed in a hack to St. Joseph's hospital in an insensible condition.

INCORRECT.—The rumor that Col. Stevens, U. S. consul at this port, was to be transferred to China is incorrect. It probably arose out of the fact that that gentleman will go to San Francisco to meet the going and returning Chinese consuls.

UNCLAIMED.—Letters for the ship Sir Jamesetjee Family are at the office of U. S. Consul Stevens.

LARGE MAPS OF MANITOBA AND N. W. TERRITORY AT T. N. HIBBEN & CO'S.

First Meeting of the School Trustees.

The inaugural meeting of the Victoria board of school trustees took place last evening at the city hall.

Present—Messrs. D. R. Harris, Jno. Braden, C. Hayward, R. B. McMicking and D. W. Higgins.

Mr. D. R. Harris, occupied the chair, and the minutes of the last meeting of the old board were read and approved.

Mr. McMicking moved that Mr. D. R. Harris be appointed chairman, and Mr. C. Hayward, secretary, since they had already filled those positions so satisfactorily. Seconded by Mr. Braden and carried.

A communication was read from Mr. C. M. Chambers, asking that his resignation as school trustee be accepted.

Mr. Higgins enquired if the letter was addressed to the chairman, and was informed that it was addressed to the board of trustees.

Mr. McMicking was sorry that Mr. Chambers should have seen fit to tender his resignation as it would incur the expense of another election; but he saw nothing else for the board to do but accept it.

Mr. Braden also felt sorry; but since Mr. Chambers had made up his mind to retire he thought his resignation must be accepted.

Mr. McMicking moved that the resignation of Mr. Chambers be filed and that the chairman be authorised to announce another election. Carried.

A communication was read by the secretary from Miss Annie Pollard, applying for position as school teacher, which was filed.

The secretary then read a letter he had received from a teacher of the central school requesting permission to attend the examination at James Bay school, which request he had not granted, and read his answer to said application.

Moved by Mr. Braden that the secretary's action in this matter be endorsed.

Mr. Higgins asked what would be the effect if the request had been granted, and was answered that her class would have to be closed.

Mr. Higgins thought it a laudable request that teachers should attend examinations, but under existing circumstances would gladly vote for the motion to endorse the secretary's action. Carried.

The secretary called the attention of the present board to the fact that $55 was voted for prizes by the former board, and was still unpaid. The principals had waited on him yesterday to ascertain if they could fix upon a stated amount for prizes and he wished to know the board's idea on that matter.

Moved by Mr. Braden that the secretary be authorized to spend $100 in prizes, being $30 each for the boys, girls and high schools and $5 each for the ward schools.

Seconded by Mr. McMicking and carried.

Mr. Higgins enquired if there were any rules governing the order of the board? and being answered in the negative, moved that the chairman name three members of the board to prepare a set of rules for the government of the board. Carried.

The chairman appointed Messrs. Higgins, Braden and McMicking to prepare the new rules; and the chairman mentioned that he had a good English authority on that subject which the committee said they would be glad to be governed by.

Mr. Braden moved that notice of election for trustee, to take the place of Mr. Chambers, be advertised to take place on Monday, July 6th. Seconded by Mr. McMicking, and carried.

Mr. McMicking enquired what certificates from Eastern Canada would be accepted by the board of examiners in this province?

Mr. Hayward replied that the only exception to provincial certificates were graduates of British universities.

Mr. Hayward called the attention of the board to the sanitary condition of the schools, and proposed that they visit them.

The meeting then adjourned.

A Bad Chinaman.

The police were sent for yesterday morning to come to Cormorant street, where a Chinaman named Long Heep was charged with drawing a revolver and knife and threatening to kill a fellow Mongol named Ah Coon. Long was arrested and brought to the police court, where he sat on the floor and commenced howling and groaning and feigning that he was choking. The police removed him to the hall where they had difficulty in keeping him down. At last, as Long became savage, three of the force carried him by arms and legs to a dray and tumbled him in. At the cells he became maniacal in his actions and tore the clothes from his person leaving himself entirely naked. He got little sympathy and probably the cold of last night may have induced him to don his garments.

Fire at Colvin's Shipyard.

Yesterday afternoon about 1:30 a fire broke out amongst a pile of shavings and shingles in Colvin's shipyard, at the back of the Esquimalt road, between the first and second bridges. Directly the fire was observed the workmen in the yard organized themselves into a bucket brigade, and kept the flames from reaching any of the buildings. Some delay occurred in giving the alarm, but after it had been sounded the brigade quickly arrived on the scene; but only one engine was required to extinguish it. The damage done is very nominal, merely consisting of the burning of a few decayed planks and shingles, and its origin is unknown.

EXPLORING COWICHAN.—Mr. D. H. McNeil, government guide, leaves for Cowichan this morning for the purpose of exploring that portion of the district adjacent to Cowichan Lake and river. It is thought that there are excellent stretches of farming land in this neighborhood that have not as yet been located, and the present trip of Mr. McNeil is with that intent.

FUNERAL.—The funeral of the late Mrs. Martha Jenkinson took place on Sunday afternoon, and was attended by a large circle of friends and acquaintances of the deceased. The pall-bearers were: Messrs. C. Booth, A. F. Smith, John Teague, Wm Heathorn, E. Fawcett and W. P. Sayward.

BRUTAL CONDUCT.—Yesterday afternoon a Fort Rupert Indian, encamped at the foot of Yates street, attacked two squaws, one of whom he scratched and bit badly. He was promptly arrested, and will have to answer for his cowardice this morning.

A. L. FRANCIS, piano tuner and repairer, will be in Victoria on or about June 15th, when he will be prepared to fill all orders. *

THEY ALL DO IT.—Buy their furniture, have their pictures framed and carpets sewed and laid by ANDERSON & ANDERSON, Fort street. *

JAMES' BAY SCHOOL.

Midsummer Examination and Exercises.

The midsummer examination of James' Bay ward school, of which Miss Storey is principal, was held yesterday morning and afternoon. In the afternoon the main exercises of the day were held, when were present Mr. S. D. Pope, superintendent of education; Messrs. R. B. McMicking, D. W. Higgins and Charles Hayward, school trustees; Mesdames Pope, McMicking, McB Smith, Hayward, Storey, Astrico, Mallandaine, Kennedy, Carrington, Stannard, Porter, McDowell, Pittock, Walker, West. Bland, Franklin, Laing, Truran, Sullivan, Wilson and Butler; the Misses Spring, Misses Storey, Misses Gray, Misses Higgins, Lazenby, Adler, Powell, Pittock and Porter; Messrs. A. B. Gray, D Spencer, G. Powell, Rev. Mr. Tate, and others, showing the great interest taken in the progress of the school by trustees and parents.

The children were present in full force, dressed in their best, looking as pretty and interesting as only children can in their innocence, their young faces animated with the excitement of the occasion and the anticipation of the holiday so near at hand.

The reading exercise by the children of the first class was most excellent, some of the little ones reading very distinctly and correctly, while others were evidently made timid by the presence of visitors, all, however, doing well. After this was concluded, a spelling match for a prize was held, and the words given by the teacher would have seated adults almost as quickly as the little folks, who spelled out the long words with very little hesitation. This prize was won by Alice C. Porter, the contest between the winner, Gertrude Ball and Willie Butler being keen. The lucky girl was given a plaudit by her schoolmates.

Mr. McMicking then distributed the rolls of honor, awarded to the most proficient by the department of education, and also various prizes given by the trustees and friends of the school, adding with each a few words of praise to the successful scholar. The names are as follows, the first mentioned being the pupil standing highest, she having obtained 463 marks out of a possible 500:

General Proficiency—Alice C. Porter.
Regular Attendance—Katie Walker.

There was a tie between this pupil and Annie Calder, neither having missed a day, and department was taken into consideration and the honor so awarded.

Good Conduct—Eda Stannard.

PRIZES.

Spelling (match)—Alice C. Porter.
Arithmetic — Gertrude Ball, Willie Butler.
Reading—Eda C. Stannard.
Geography—Alice C. Porter.
Regular Attendance—Annie Calder.
Spelling—Gertrude Ball.
General Improvement—Geo. Potter, L. Patton.
General proficiency (2nd class)—Annie McDowell.
General improvement (2nd class)—Hattie Walker.

Mr. Pope then read the names of those who had been successful in passing up to the higher school. Sixty per cent. out of a possible 500 was necessary to pass. The average attendance of the school had been 50, 95 names being on the roll and 26 in the first class. Of these 11 had been successful in their examination. This fact, the superintendent said, was highly creditable to the teacher, who had ever been very faithful in her school duties.

The following are the names of the successful scholars in order of merit:—Alice C. Porter, Eda Stannard, Gertrude Ball, William A. Butler, James Strachan, Harriet Mallandaine, Duncan Clark, Joseph M. Leigh, John W. Mackay, Richard Trwran, Celia Powell.

Promoted from 2nd to 1st class—Annie McDowell (who obtained 130 out of a possible 140), Hattie Walker, James Birney, Annie Calder, Harry Matthews, Ernest Lakin, May Clark.

Promoted from 3rd to 2nd class—Fred Patton, George Powell, Mable Pittock.

The superintendent then called upon the trustees and other gentlemen present to address the children.

Mr. D. W. Higgins said he was very pleased to see so many bright and happy faces, and referring to the advancement of the scholars, spoke of the many advantages possessed by children now to what existed when he was a boy. He advised them to be dutiful to parents and teachers and always to be studious so that when they launched into the school of life and replaced those who were now here, they would be able to do so satisfactorily. He wished them a very pleasant holiday.

Mr. Hayward also referred to the superior system of education, and congratulated teacher and scholars on the progress made, evident by the fact that eleven out of an average attendance of fifty-one had passed to the Central school.

Mr. McMicking wished the scholars a joyous holiday, and praised them for their progress, the girls seemingly being in advance of the boys in their studies.

Mr. A. B. Gray had great pleasure in listening to the exercises, and gave the little folks good advice about their studies. He had personal knowledge of the attendance, and thought much of it was due to the kindly sympathy existing between teacher and scholars. He wished them all a most pleasant holiday.

Mr. D. Spencer spoke of the fact that all might win prizes for deportment, while all could not for studies; but those who benefited most were not the prize winners, but those who had worked the hardest. He had always noticed the kindly feeling between the teacher of the school and the little ones. He, too, would wish them a happy time during their vacation.

Rev. Mr. Tate spoke of the many advantages the children of the present day possessed; the great variety of pleasant books that were gotten up for children's pleasure and profit.

Capt. Wolfenden said there was nothing left for him to say, so he would propose three cheers for Miss Storey, which the children gave with hearty lung-power.

A number of the girls and boys then gave recitations and songs, all of them excellent. The deportment of the little ones was very pleasing, showing they had been trained in this important branch with benefit.

The school in chorus then sang "Harvest Home" very sweetly, after which a verse of "God Save the Queen" when they were dismissed for the holidays. Their delighted faces told how they enjoyed the fact that they would not again be required at school for nearly six weeks.

ANOTHER CLUB.—A new club is being started here. It will be conducted upon the same principles as the Union, and will be called the Commercial.

WATER-PIPES.—A number of water-pipes were yesterday landed from the Queen of the Pacific for the city waterworks.

Licensing Court.

(Before R. P. Rithet, Mayor, Mr. E. Johnson, P. M., and A. McLean and Geo. Morrison, J. P's.)

MONDAY, June 22.

The adjourned meeting of the licensing board met at the police court-room at 12:30 yesterday.

A petition was read from C. West, Merchants' Exchange saloon, corner of Wharf and Fort streets, asking for a transfer of license to C. Pagden. Granted.

From J. P. Walls, asking for a transfer of license of the St. Nicholas hotel from John McCartney and Verner to John McCartney.

Mr. Walls explained that the partnership had been dissolved, and it was merely the striking out of the one name.

The court agreed to the carrying on of the business under the present license, proper license to be applied for at next regular court.

ROYAL EXCHANGE COMPLAINT.

Mr. Walls, in reference to the charge against H. A. Czarski, of the Royal Exchange saloon, said that the disturbance was caused by the wife of the proprietor, who was subject to fits of hysteria. Certificates were submitted from two medical men, certifying to the fact of the woman's unfortunate condition.

The charge was read, which claimed that there was a row on the 12th, and also on another occasion, disturbing the peace.

His worship, in answer to Mr. Walls, said that the complaint was as he contended, it was one that might happen in any private house; but they were dealing with a licensed house, which was a different matter.

Mr. Czarski, the proprietor of the saloon, was sworn, and stated that his wife had been subject to fits for three years, and on the occasion complained of she was suffering from a severe attack. The saloon part was closed at the time. They had frequently to carry her upstairs while those fits were on.

To the court—Do not keep a disorderly house; my wife does not drink; the fits are not caused by intoxication; have been fined $20 once for a sault, last year.

Mr. Walls contended again that the rooms occupied by the wife were separate entirely from the saloon.

Geo. Newman, the complainant, sworn, said that on the night in question he was aroused by a row, and going out he saw the wife of Czarski on the verandah, running around and calling "murder," "police," "he's killing me." They procured a ladder and got the woman down, and Czarski refused admittance to them. Frequently these rows occurred, howling and yelling, and disturbing the whole neighborhood. Once he saw two Indians drinking at the bar on a Sunday morning, but whether whisky or soda he could not state, and the Indians, though asked, would not tell. At one time he saw Czarski turn his wife out while she was partly dressed and played the hose on her; have seen other women at the house; understood that one was a prostitute.

To Mr. Walls—Have not been friends with Czarski; only acquaintances; never made a complaint to the police about a building erected by him.

Patrick Carr, sworn, said the woman frequently cried and annoyed the neighbors; fast women frequented the saloon and raised a racket by singing, dancing and so on; he had seen the Indians drinking at the bar; the night of the row the woman had cried and said that her husband had struck her on the mouth.

Officer Hoosen, sworn, stated that on the night of the row he had heard the woman two blocks away; he had seen women who were noted prostitutes coming out of the house at 9:30 in the evening; had seen considerable drunkenness in the neighborhood; women were in the habit of playing cards in the saloon with men.

Officer Sheppard sworn, said that on one occasion he had been called on by Czarski when his wife was under the influence of liquor; his hat was torn; had seen her several times under influence of liquor.

His worship said the decision of the bench was that the license would be granted temporarily; if the house was not conducted orderly the license would be summarily rescinded. They hoped that Mr. Czarski would take warning and see that his house was conducted in a respectable and orderly way. On account of Mrs. Czarski's affliction the bench took a lenient view of the case.

Mr. Walls applied for a license for Mr. Verner, of the Snug tavern, presenting a petition in his favor. The bench, however, expressed the opinion that they could not rescind their former decision.

The court then adjourned.

Municipal Police Court.

(Before Mr. Edwin Johnson, S. M.)

MONDAY, June 22.

The officers who marched the white, Indian and Chinese prisoners from the barracks to the police court yesterday morning looked happy and smiling, feeling that certainly there was substantial evidence that they had done their duty in furnishing the brigade of fifteen sorry looking drunks, vagrants and Indian whisky-sellers. They filed into court and seated themselves in an affectionate row in the dock.

M. Kates, Louie Freezy, Johnny, Chas Carney, John Brown and Robert Colbert, each pleaded guilty to imbibing too much whisky, and were fined $5 and costs.

Frank Adams, charged with being a vagrant and suspected of selling liquor to Indians, was fined $20 or one month.

Hong, a Chinaman, charged with supplying an Indian with liquor, stated in defence that the Indian wrested the liquor from him, and threw down fifty cents. His Honor fined him $50 and costs, or three months, as the story was evidently too thin.

Geo. E. Batho was charged with supplying liquor to an Indian. The case was proved and the prisoner fined $50 or three months imprisonment.

Jimmy Chickens, for being in possession of liquor, was fined $25 or one month.

S. Shannon and three Indians were charged with sleeping in an outhouse and having no visible means of support, were discharged, His Honor advising Shannon in the future to try and associate with civilized people, instead of degrading himself among the Indians.

The case against Geo Stelly, for an infraction of a bylaw, was adjourned until to-morrow.

TRUSTEE ELECTION.—In consequence of the resignation of Mr. C. M. Chambers as school trustee for Johnson street ward, a meeting of registered voters will be held in the City Hall on the 6th July, for the purpose of electing a trustee to fill the vacancy. If a poll is demanded voting will be held the following day.

The Chinese Will Come.

Yesterday morning 907 Chinese arrived in this port by sailing vessel direct and by mail steamer from San Francisco. They represent 907 individual reasons why the Chinese restriction act should be passed by the Commons, and also why the present Chinese restriction act should be strictly enforced. The following are the names of vessels with number of Chinese brought by them:

Alden Besse (Capt. O'Brien).....366
W. H. Besse (Capt. Gibb).....436
Martha (Capt. McPherson)..... 35
Queen of the Pacific..... 80

To whom this large lot of Celestials is consigned is not known, though it is believed that Tai Chong & Co. have a considerable number of them. The vessels are lying in Royal roads but will be towed over this morning to Welch Rithet & Co.'s inner wharf where the unwelcome living freight will be landed. The ships are consigned to Welch, Rithet & Co., and each brings about 500 tons of general cargo.

How the Chinese are to be disposed of is hard to imagine, considering the fact that this fall will see work on the C. P. R. finished, and Island railway construction will also be completed in another nine months. We have altogether too many Chinese in this country now, and this late consignment is like adding the last straw.

SERIOUS LOSS FROM FIRE.—On Friday last Mr. P. J. Houlihan of Richmond road disovered that his huge and valuable pile of firewood in the swamp near Cadboro bay was on fire. Mr. Houlihan with his brother and others made strenuous efforts to prevent the spread of the flames, but to no purpose. They soon enveloped the pile, which comprised about 800 cords, and by nightfall all but a few sticks had been consumed. The fire spread through the brush towards the bay, destroying everything in its path, including 100 cords of firewood belonging to Mr. Finnerty and much valuable timber. Mr. Houlihan loses about $3000 and Mr. Finnerty about $400. It is believed that the fire was purposely caused.

CONFIRMATION.—The sacrament of confirmation was administered on Sunday morning to about fifty candidates by His Grace Archbishop Seghers. Before the ceremony began his grace delivered an interesting address explanatory of the sacrament.

DEATH.—On the 11th instant, at San Francisco, Rosa B. Goetz, a native of Victoria, B. C., the beloved daughter of Mrs. J. J. Southern and the late Martin Goetz, aged 21 years 6 months and 5 days. —San Francisco Chronicle.

NEW WORK.—Captain N. H. Chittenden will start this evening on a trip over the Canadian Pacific railway as far east as Manitoba. Upon his return he will issue a book on the overland route.

VISITING THE QUEEN.—A number of ladies yesterday morning took advantage of the fine weather and drove down to the outer wharf to visit the Queen of the Pacific.

NORTH SAANICH.—Trinity church, at Union Bay, North Saanich, will be consecrated on Saturday by the lord bishop of Columbia.

NAVAL.—H. M. S. Satellite touched at San Francisco on the 17th instant, on her way to Acapulco from Esquimalt.

A MODEL-MAKER'S VIEWS.

A Business Which Is Nearly at a Standstill—Patterns for Inventors.

[New York Mail and Express.]

"There are not more than twenty shops in the city of New York devoted to the making of patterns or the building of models," said a pattern-maker to a reporter, as he stood at his lathe turning a piece of wood. "The business does not seem to grow like other trades, and I must confess I am somewhat at a loss to discover the reason. You certainly would suppose that in a great metropolis like this inventors would be so plenty that hundreds of pattern and model-makers would be kept busy all the time working out their ideas in wood. Inventors are, however, not quite so plenty as that. There are plenty of men who are always on the point of making a great invention, but somehow they never reach the successful issue.

"I have been in this shop thirteen years and during that time have employed a great many different workmen. My experience has convinced me that there has been no improvement whatever in the machinery used in my business over that of a quarter of a century ago. We use exactly the same tools as we did then, and do our work in the same manner. This, I suppose, sounds somewhat strange to you, but it is nevertheless an undisputed fact."

"Do you have any trouble in getting good apprentices?"

"Yes, we do. The young men who come to learn the trade are usually ignorant fellows who have received but little or no education. They are faithful in their work and seem to want to learn, but their ignorance of the slightest mechanical principles is a serious drawback to their advancement. I have often wondered why it is that more of the bright boys who graduate from our public schools do not take up the skilled trades. There is a good field here for such workmen as they would make. Somehow the boys all prefer to become clerks in dry goods stores or horse-car conductors instead. The period of apprenticeship, while nominally three years, is really unlimited. A workman is learning something new all the time. There is no limit to the variety of work we are called upon to perform.

"A man comes in here and explains to me what he desires to construct. He has, perhaps, made no drawings or measurements, but he expects me, after listening to his descriptions, to go to work and make the pattern, or model, whichever it may be, without any further assistance from him. If we were called upon to construct the same pattern quite often, why, then we might be able to improve our machines and tools. As it is now, we can never tell what we will make during the next twenty-four hours. Of course, a great many of our orders come from manufacturers. These are accompanied by the drawings and measurements, and are therefore more easily filled. Occasionally a crank comes in with a queer machine which he desires me to model. I usually tell such individuals that I have no time to do their work, and recommend them to some one whom I think will perhaps humor the crank's whims. Do we get good prices for our work? I have received as high as $100 for a model. It depends in a great measure upon the intricacy of the machine to be constructed. We pay our workmen from $3 to $5 a day."

The True Inwardness of Wagner's Music.

[Chicago Times.]

Wagner is representative of German imperialism, of united Germany. In the "Jarbuecher fuer die Deutsche Armee und Marine" is an article by Lieut. Remak, in which he discusses humanity and war. He announces that the end of war is victory; and to secure this, humanity must become extinct, the tender feelings must be unheeded; the charging squadron and the flying battery must not hesitate to trample and grind the wounded who lie in their path; and concludes by saying: "Upon the subject of our next war, our descendants must read in history the summary judgment: The German people gained the victory, thanks to their reckless warfare, annihilating, exterminating, subjugating everything in their way."

It is precisely this ignoring of the delicate sensibilities, this disregard of sentiment, this hoarse resounding trumpet blast of defiance and destruction that are developed by Wagner. He reverses the system which makes the theme subservient to the music; he does not select sunny, pastoral subjects for treatment. There are no nimble courtiers, "lascivious lutes," nor enervated carpet knights in his creations. He deals only with the powers of war and death. His heroes are demi-gods, mighty in stature, unrelenting in hate, incessant in combat, brutal and overpowering in love. His women are never shrinking, rouged, bedizened sentimentalists; but robust creations, who hover delightedly among the dead, the wounded, the clamor, the terrific shock of the battle-field. They have no rose-tinted boudoirs to which they invite their lovers, but meet them beneath the awful crags of the spirit-haunted mountains when the storm shakes the very foundations of the earth; they stand in the presence of gods, and are fierce, virile, robust, without a trace of human alloy. All this is in accord with the spirit of the new empire; and the harsh dissonances, the occasional grand harmonics, the forceful volcanic explosions of Wagner are its exponents.

Marriage and Health.

[Demorest's Monthly.]

It has been proved beyond all peradventure that married people suffer less from sickness—have fewer diseases and live longer lives than the unmarried; this is true of both sexes. When cholera rages it takes away more single than married people, and so of all contagions. Professor Richard A. Proctor while admitting these facts warns sickly people against marriage. He says they have no right to burden wholesome partners with invalid companions for life, nor should they run the risk of bringing children into the world, that they may inherit their chronic ailments.

The greater mortality of the single may be due to the fact that invalids of both sexes often abstain from marriage. The question has been raised whether any one should be permitted to marry without a doctor's permit. Certainly it is a mockery of a divine ordinance, for clergymen to unite persons who cannot be true companions, and who are unsuited to each other by difference of age or an inherited tendency to insanity or disease.

Two Arkansaw Acquaintances.

[Arkansaw Traveler.]

"Captain, what was the matter with your son when he died?"

"Nothing the matter with him when he died except that he was dead."

"Pretty sick though before he died, wasn't he.

"Well' he wasn't as peart as he had been."

"Died a natural death, I suppose."

"Yes."

"Whisky?"

"Whisk-r"

AFTERGLOW.

[Arthur C. Canfield.]

When Day has shut his prying eye
Within his chamber of the west,
And neither moon nor stars are nigh,
And listening winds are laid to rest,
And tell-tale birds brood on the nest,
Glad earth looks up to happy Sky
To tell his love ere it be night.
He whispers low beneath his breath,
And sweet and secret things he saith,
Till—lo! she blushes with delight.

It is now given out that too much coffee dries up the liver.

The Coleridge Libel Suit.

LONDON, June 9.—No judgment has yet been given in the appeal suit of Adams v. Coleridge, and it is thought the delay is intentional, to afford an opportunity of a compromise. Rumour to-night has it that such a compromise has been arrived at. It is stated that Mr. Adams will withdraw his libel suit against the Chief Justice, and in the case of his son Bernard proceedings will be abandoned upon the condition that Lord Coleridge settles £600 a year on his daughter on the occasion of her marriage to Mr. Adams. It is stated to-night that the Chief Justice has accepted these terms, and promises to restore Miss Mildred to the position in his household, which she is entitled to occupy and not to allow the law-suit to make any difference in her domestic relations. The entire proceedings, however, are being conducted with such extreme secrecy that any rumours respecting arrangments are accepted with more than the customary grain of salt.

Col. Stewart's Return.

LONDON, June 9.—Colonel Patrick Stewart, the chief political officer of the Afghan Frontier Commission, returned to England to-day. He is as much disgusted at Sir Peter Lumsden over the abrupt and inconclusive ending of the commission, but he is more cautious and diplomatic in the expression of his opinion.
